

COMPOSITION FESTIVAL 2010-2011

WHEN: Will be announced but most likely March 19 or 26, 2011

WHERE: Madison High School (will be announced if different)

DEADLINE FOR ENTRIES: January 29, 2011

CHAIRMAN: Janis Allison 356-0884

NOTES ABOUT ENTERING

1. Students of all ages and levels may enter. Their teachers must be members of UVMTA.
2. The compositions may be written for any instrument or voice, in a solo or ensemble form and with any subject or theme.
3. Writing must be legible and may be hand or computer written. Parents and teachers may help with some of the writing, but the music must be the student's own work.
4. The composition should be written on regular 8 1/2 x 11 staff paper. Pages should be numbered in the right-hand corner, and measures should be numbered at the beginning of each line in a square.
5. A cassette tape or CD recording of a performance of the composition should accompany the hard-copy music.
6. A cover sheet (see next page) should accompany each entry.
7. The entry fee is $10.00 with one entry allowed per student.
8. Include the cover sheet, hard-copy music, performance tape or CD, and your check in a large, yellow mailing envelope. Please write the student's name on the back flap. (Padded mailing envelopes are less likely to get lost in the USPS.) Bring or mail to Janis Allison at 405 W 4th S, Rexburg, ID 83440. These envelopes will be sent to a judge who will write an evaluation. They will be returned to each student at the Composition Festival.
9. Within one week after the due date, teachers are to contact Janis Allison at 356-0884 to see if all entries have been received.

NOTES ABOUT FESTIVAL DAY

This is a concert where students will perform their creations for each other, their families and teachers in the Auditorium. Awards will be presented to outstanding compositions in each level depending upon participation. The judge will discuss composition highlights and add suggestions for further efforts.
